

ANS Correspondence

"Antiquarian, The"

1923-1924

THE ANTIQUARIAN
PRINTING CRAFTS BLDG.
NEW YORK CITY
LONGACRE 7130

Editor
ESTHER SINGLETON

Publishers and Printers
A. F. & S. K. BOLLINGER

Gentlemen:—

In the September issue of "The Antiquarian" we intend inaugurating a new feature—"Museum Notes".

In order to secure complete reports from Secretaries of Museums, Art Institutes and Galleries we are mailing requests for news items, etc., to 140 such institutions, asking them to kindly send us their bulletins and, from time to time, any news matter they may care to have published.

In return for your courtesy we will be pleased to enter you on our exchange list, so "The Antiquarian" may come to you regularly.

Thanking you, we are

Faithfully yours,

THE EDITOR.

August 9th, 1923

The Antiquarian
Printing Crafts Building
New York City

Gentlemen:

In response to your circular letter, our Museum is closed just at present in order to re-arrange our exhibition material after the National Sculpture Society's exhibition.

We shall be very glad to send you word of new accessions or exhibitions, and wish to thank you for your offer to place our name on the list of "The Antiquarian".

Very truly yours,

Secretary

SPN/E

January 24th, 1924

Miss Esther Singleton
Editor "The Antiquarian"
461 Eighth Avenue
New York City

Dear Madam:

We sent to you a few days ago a copy of Italian Orders of Chivalry & Medals of Honour by Harrold E. Gillingham. I trust the book may have sufficient interest for you to call it to the attention of your readers. Any notice that you may be able to give it will be appreciated by The American Numismatic Society.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

SPN/E

Price - $2.00